A rare Collection of Australian Pidgin English Air Drop Leaflets from WWII, this remarkable collection of 21 printed Australian Pidgin English air drop leaflets, specifically designed for distribution among the inhabitants of New Guinea during World War II. These leaflets, crafted to communicate urgent messages, warn against siding with the Japanese forces and convey the dire situation faced by local populations. Each leaflet features translations that reflect the context of the time, though some language may not align with contemporary standards of political correctness. This collection not only serves as a fascinating glimpse into wartime communication strategies but also highlights the complexities of cultural interactions during a pivotal moment in history. Ideal for collectors, historians, or anyone interested in the nuances of wartime propaganda, this set is a rare find that offers insight into the past. £450

MAFEKING

- 1035 E 1900 (?) original letter from an unknown correspondent relating to the Mafeking siege stamps and headed 'Postage stamps overprinted and reissued at Mafeking during the siege 1900'. We learn (according to the writer) that large amounts were demanded by the native runners to carry the mail through the siege (1/- per ½ oz for the Northern route, 6d per ½ oz the South). As such, the Military authorities decreed that any unsold stamps (in possession of the Postmaster General, Lord Cecil), should be surcharged accordingly, to levy the required additional funds. There is reference also to a large number of forgeries being produced and to the use of the Baden-Powell stamps for regular, internal mail. A listing of the quantities printed for each issue is also provided. A fragile but utterly fascinating document. £50

 £1000+ = £100

Please note all prices shown in the catalogue are fixed reserves i.e. the minimum the item will sell for

All lots to be paid for before collection, either on the day of sale or by post

No additions will be made to the selling price for successful postal bidders other than buyers' premium and postage, packing and insurance with an Inland £1 minimum charge

Postal bidders not satisfied with their lots may return them within 7 days of receipt, stating reason for return. Collections or bulk lots are not returnable under any circumstances

Onus is on purchaser to provide guarantee of authenticity if required, if not already certified.

Credit cards accepted as payment with NO SURCHARGE along with cheques and cash.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATING TO VENDORS

IMPORTANT: Please note that all lots entered by vendors are subject to VENDORS' COMMISSION of 18% PLUS VAT

The face value of any GB and Channel Isles decimal lots, being the whole or part of the lot, (except Glory Boxes) should be stated by the Vendor.

There is an administrative charge of £1 for every entry in every catalogue which will only be charged if the lot sells

T&T Auctions reserve the right to amend any description which is misleading or fails to disclose any defects which may affect the value of the lot and to amend the Reserve accordingly. Lots withdrawn from the auction by the vendor after they have been agreed will be subject to an administrative fee.

The minimum reserve accepted from Vendors will be £60, any lot which is not to this value will be returned. T&T Auctions Ltd reserve the right to refuse any lot which in our opinion is of insufficient value or to combine the same to make one lot of sufficient value. Items refused will be returned at Vendors expense.

Vendors wishing to have unsold lots returned should collect them, or notify T&T Auctions Ltd, within ten days after each auction

Any unsold lots returned by post will incur postage. Any unsold lots not collected in due time will be disposed of at the discretion of T&T Auctions to defray administrative costs. Auction lots left for valuation which remain with us for longer than 6 months will be disposed of at the company's discretion.

Vendors will be paid as soon as is practicable and not before 40 working days (This allows for all revenue to be collected)

Whilst every effort is made regarding security of items left with T&T Auctions, no guarantee can be given in respect of expensive or high catalogue items in general or one country collections unless itemised in the description
